"At 8 o'clock in the morning after a late night Jan "wowed" 450 School Principals with laughter and inspiration. Her humor and practical advice for finding levity in all that we do provided our conferees more tools to take back to their schools. I highly recommend Jan for your next conference or event. She is the best!". P.L., Exec. Di., Mich. Elementary & Middle School Principals Assn.

A Little About Jan . . .

Jan McInnis, has written for Jay Leno's Tonight Show monologue as well as many other people, places and groups – radio, TV, syndicated cartoon strips, guests on the Jerry Springer show (her parents are proud). For the past 20+ years she's traveled the country as a keynote speaker and comedian sharing her unique and practical tips on how to use humor in business (yes it's a business skill!). Jan has been featured at thousands of events. She's the author of 2 books, and was featured in the Wall Street Journal, The Washington Post, and the Huffington Post.

Finding the Funny in Change (most popular keynote)

This keynote connects well with education groups! It has solid take-away tips they can use back at work, and it includes plenty of humor. The lightning-fast pace of change is staggering to many leaders, organizations, and some team members. Rapid, continuous change often results in fear, tension, and miscommunication. Using humor can diffuse tension instantly and initiate tough conversations.

Bouncing Back: Handling Setbacks Like a Comedian

Nobody tries to fail, but sometimes things go "not as planned," and recovery is rough. Comedians know this more than anyone because they have a very high profile job. And when they flub up, or something goes wrong, it needs to be fixed fast and on the spot. Jan gives tips on how to handle, avoid and move through these situations. Don't let mistakes and mishaps hinder future success!

Master of Ceremonies

Awards recognition shouldn't be a chore! Jan will bring the fun and energy to your event so everyone, even the people not being recognized, will enjoy it!
