Finding the Funny in Change (most popular keynote)

This keynote connects well with IT groups! It has solid take-away tips they can use back at work, and it includes plenty of humor. The lightning-fast pace of change is staggering to many leaders, organizations, and some team members. Rapid, continuous change often results in fear, tension, and miscommunication. Using humor can diffuse tension instantly and initiate tough conversations.

Bouncing Back: Handling Setbacks Like a Comedian

Nobody tries to fail, but sometimes things go “not as planned,” and recovery is rough. Comedians know this more than anyone because they have a very high profile job. And when they flub up, or something goes wrong, it needs to be fixed fast and on the spot. Jan gives tips on how to handle, avoid and move through these situations. Don’t let mistakes and mishaps hinder future success!

“Jan was awesome, we couldn’t have asked for a better speaker! Her jokes were a hit across the board from our youngest employees to our older employees and her message was clear and easy to follow. I will definitely have a hard time finding a speaker next year to top her performance!”

"After three full days of heavy educational content, Jan delivered a funny, entertaining and value-packed keynote on the final morning of our conference. Our attendees definitely came away having Found the Funny in Change, with real life takeaways they could use in their work lives. It's the first time we've had people laugh hysterically and also find value in the presentation."

T.J. J., International Legal and Technology Association

"Jan McInnis was the keynote speaker at our recent conference in Anaheim. She did a fantastic job! Her jokes were great and her sense of humor resonated with the audience. Not only did we laugh heartily, but we gained insight into how to use humor to improve communication, particularly in the workplace. As the organization president and conference host, I was also pleased that Jan was punctual, professional and organized. I heartily recommend Jan and would enjoy having her present to our organization again in the future." C.S., Western Regional Users Group (health care software)

"Thank you again for providing the keynote address at the California Health Information Association's annual convention. You worked hard to make sure that you understood our audience before the event and it showed. Your sense of humor and remarks were on target with our members – many commented to me that they could really relate to your stories. Your keynote was the perfect kickoff our 60th anniversary convention. Let me know if you need any references for future events – I am happy to recommend you to any group."
